HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF MARSHALL COUNTY

The Historical Society of Marshall County was founded in 1908 and is a 501(c)3 tax-free organization. The historical society enriches the lives of Marshall County residents in countless ways by preserving and protecting artifacts for future generations, operating the 1913 Taylor #4 Country School, overseeing the operation of the Edel Blacksmith Shop in Haverhill, and hosting free monthly historical programs.

As a member you will receive four (4) copies of the THEN AND NOW society publication. The Francis Rhoades Williams research library is also home to the vast genealogical research holdings of the Historical Society of Marshall County.
